

Are you old enough to remember....

...when wine was only red, not very popular and your mom put candles in empty chianti bottles to use for decoration?

Times sure have changed!

US wine consumption has risen 30% in the last decade, and the nation has overtaken Italy as the #2 consumer of wine, second only to France.

Come learn more on March 18th, at 7 PM when the Brotherhood of St. Andrews hosts a wine tasting and educational forum presented by one of Mutual Distributing Company's noted wine authorities. Don't miss it!
